

NOT YET WITHIN EXPECTATIONS

Teacher's Observations

The story consists of a series of loosely connected pieces of advice about looking after a dragon. Frequent, basic errors make the writing hard to understand. The student needed continuing support to think of ideas and to complete the task.

	Not Yet	Meets	Fully	Exceeds
SNAPSHOT
MEANING
STYLE
FORM
CONVENTIONS

- ◆ makes some attempts to add interest through detail
- ◆ basic, simple language
- ◆ sentences have little variety or control (there is a series of short, simple sentence units, but no punctuation separating them)
- ◆ has a beginning, middle, and end
- ◆ frequent, repeated errors make the writing hard to understand
- ◆ simple, familiar words misspelled
- ◆ capitals and periods often omitted or misused

How to care for a Dragon.
I Have a pet Dragon I got it on my Badbay it is Hrd to tack care of frst all tell you How to Bath

TRANSCRIPT

How to care for a Dragon

I Have a pet Dragon I got it on my Badbay it is Hrd to tack care of frst all tell you How to Bath Him you Hato yos Dragon thapw he ywll Breus fir But I Hav a firicstlathr tat gos off evetim He Birsfire whut to feed Him cats or mis and nvr put your Had in His moth Wen a Dragon wets food Hre up ales He well get mad wow to keep a dragon dis playe wit Him He plas wie a Boll How to pot a Dragon to BeD snugl Him up and Not wac Him up